MIFARE.NET contains a comprehensive list of suppliers of smart cards, tags, readers and terminals, as well as system integrators and those involved in software services.

- 2.2 In addition to the terms and conditions of this Agreement User shall comply with the Trademark Usage Guidelines as well as any other conditions, policies and/or user guidelines published on MIFARE.NET. Should any product fail the compliance testing, NXP will notify User that such product is not a Licensed MIFARE Product, and User shall cease all use of the MIFARE Trademarks and MIFARE.NET in any form or manner with such product. - 2.5 User shall not use any mark equal or similar to the MIFARE Trademarks in any manner whatsoever that:

- a. would be detrimental to the distinctive character and repute of the MIFARE Trademarks; or
- b. would enable User to benefit from the reputation of the MIFARE Trademarks through means that are generally not accepted in international commercial practice.

For the avoidance of doubt, this may include without limitation incomplete comparisons, false advertising, and bait-and-switch practices.

- 2.6 User shall indemnify and hold harmless NXP for any and all losses and damages arising from breach of this Sections 2.4. and 2.5 User and NXP agree that such damages shall at least amount to liquidated damages of € 0,50 (fifty Euro-cent) per product offered, sold, or otherwise exploited. This provision shall by no means limit or waive any right or remedy of NXP to obtain compensation for damages incurred by NXP or its affiliated companies.

- 4.2 Each Party may terminate this Agreement by means of a written notice to the other Party in the event of a material breach by the other Party and such breach is not remedied within 30 days after receipt of a notice specifying the nature of such breach and requiring it to be remedied. Such right of termination shall not be exclusive of any other remedies or means of redress to which the non-defaulting Party may be lawfully entitled and all such remedies shall be cumulative.
- 4.3 NXP may immediately terminate this Agreement by giving a written notice to the User, if any of the following events occur to the User:
